Cache site continues to produce hidden munitions

BAQUBAH, Iraq (April 20, 2006) – A large cache discovered in Diyala Province, April 19, continued to bare fruit of the munitions kind when Soldiers with the 1st Bn., 1st Bde., 5th Iraqi Army Division and Alpha Troop, 1st Sqdr., 32nd Cav., 3rd Heavy Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, Task Force Band of Brothers uncovered more hidden mortars and artillery rounds today.

The initial find of 18-122 mm mortar rounds, 31-105 mm mortar rounds and 13 fuses was discovered to be much larger when today an additional 250 artillery and mortar rounds of various sizes was unearthed from the same location.

The discoveries continue to debilitate insurgent's abilities and goals.
